Historical/Biographical Note:

The Scarritt-Bennett Center (SBC) is a Methodist nonprofit organization in Nashville, TN. They are located the former Scarritt College campus which now operates as a conference, retreat, and education center. SBC is run by the United Women in Faith and have been known to host festivals, workshops, retreats, and lecture series dating back to the mid-nineteenth century. One of the most recognizable things that SBC has done is the Celebration of Cultures Festival, now run by Metro Parks under the name Celebrate Nashville Cultural Festival. For more information about the Scarritt-Bennett Center, you may refer to one of the many brochures in the collection or go to their website: <https://scarrittbennett.org/>.

Scope and Contents of the Collection:

The Scarritt-Bennett Collection includes about 30 boxes with items ranging from 1968-2011, but are predominately focused on the 1990s. This collection includes materials from not only the Celebration of Cultures Festival (now called Celebrate Nashville Cultural Festival), but includes other programs, workshops, events, and lecture series that were hosted at the Scarritt-Bennett Center. The documents, photos, brochures, media, and ephemera found within this collection include different avenues of education in Nashville,

Arrangement:

This collection is arranged into eleven series: Celebration of Cultures, Events, Events/People, Miller Lecture Files, Organization Files, People (People/Events/Places; People/Places), Program Files, Program Ideal Files, and Event Photos. These series are divided into subseries which classify the types of documents that are within the folder. These include Brochures, Correspondence, Documents, Photos, Media, or some combination of the series.

The Celebration of Cultures series ranges from 1996-2011. It includes documents from the creation of the festival in 1996 to the transfer of the festival to Metro Parks in 2011.

The Events series goes over the different workshops, festivals, programs, and services that the Scarritt-Bennett Center offered between 1990-2003. This series goes over topics ranging from discussion of sexuality and religion to cultural programs and even community-oriented events.

The Event Photos series is an extension of the Events series but is limited to the photos and media for particular events.

The Events/People series expands the Events series by including notable individuals and speakers that visited the Scarritt-Bennett Center as well as includes photos of alumni from Scarritt-Bennet College.

The Miller Lecture Files range from 1965-1997 and cover the events hosted in honor of Bishop and Mrs. Miller which focus on missions to Latin America. They were hosted by the Scarritt-Bennett Center and started by Dr. Evelyn Berger Brown, the daughter of the Millers.

The Organizational Files series holds the majority of the brochures, documents, and ephemera that were specifically related to the Scarritt-Bennett Center operations. This includes their Angel Shop, Gift Shop, Library, and other day-to-day files ranging from 1991-2001.

The People series (also labeled as People/Events/Places or People/Places) focuses on the significant people, alumnae, and faculty of the Scarritt-Bennett Center. The dates for this series ranges from 1989-2002, but a significant number of objects in the series are undated.

The Program Files series focuses on the Amazing Grace workshops along with some other files and documents. The dates of this series are 1990-1994.

The Program Ideal Files series focuses on workshops that were thought of/took place at the Scarritt-Bennett Center between 1990-1997. These include topics such as multiculturalism, sexuality, and travel seminars.
