- iii. Mr. Rand asked if there were any issues with the Southeast and Hadley Park branches. Ms. Drye answered that the Southeast branch was a General Services building so NPL does not maintain that building.
- iv. Mr. Rand asked what the plans were for the current Donelson branch. Ms. Drye stated that the building would be utilized in some form depending on what Metro chooses. Ms. Drye mentioned that the building had been proposed as a possible site for NECAT, but that decision had not been made yet.
- v. Ms. Rosalyn Carpenter asked what NECAT was. Ms. Lee Boulie answered that NECAT stood for Nashville's Education Community Arts Television, a public access TV station where anyone can learn to create and air film and television programs.
- vi. Mr. Keith Simmons asked if there was currently enough money to fix all the repairs that Ms. Drye detailed in her report. Ms. Drye confirmed this and stated that there was a small surplus of funds after calculating all the needs listed in the report.
- vii. Ms. Nadine De La Rosa asked what the other areas were being considered for maintenance in the future. Ms. Drye mentioned plans for redeveloping and redesigning the new Hadley Park and Richland Park branches, as well as remodeling the Green Hills and Hermitage branches. Ms. Drye also expressed a desire to do more preventative maintenance in the future.
- viii. Ms. Carpenter asked if any thought had gone into supplying diversity opportunities for women, ethnic minorities, veterans, and/ or small businesses. Ms. Drye stated that Metro Procurement guidelines and policy must be followed in any purchase made in Metro. Ms. Carpenter clarified her question and asked to what extent does NPL report back to The Library Board as they follow Metro Procurement guidelines, specifically concerning whether certain projects have hit percentage targets to meet diversity needs. Ms. Drye stated that Metro Procurement reports to the Metro Standards Board, and in response, the Metro Standards Board reported those numbers, but NPL had not historically reported those numbers. Ms. Carpenter requested that moving forward NPL be mindful of the policies and report back to The Library Board on the ways in which NPL is being compliant. Ms. Searcy added that one of the Metro councilmembers had expressed the intent to study the current procurement process and look at ways it could be improved in the future.

ix. Ms. Ezell asked what other uses the current Donelson branch could be used for. Ms. Luke stated that it was difficult to tell until a decision is made regarding the location for NECAT. The building could potentially be used for other library departments that needed more space. Ms. Luke stated that she had spoken with Ms. Kristin Wilson about extending the two-year lease with Nashville State and NECAT at the JPEG Studio. Ms. Luke stated that in case the contract did not go through or took longer than expected, she asked that the current Donelson branch be used as a backup for housing NECAT until a better alternative could be considered.

c. Courtyard Update, Susan Drye

- i. Ms. Drye informed The Library Board that $5 million had been set aside for the courtyard to be renovated.
- ii. Ms. Drye stated that NPL hired GHP (Gobbell Hays Partners) and presented the renovations plan to the Robinson Family and the courtyard's stakeholders.
- iii. Ms. Drye explained that a number of architectural mistakes were made during the construction of the courtyard 23 years ago. Ms. Dry stated that the original tile from the Church Street Center that stood where the Main branch is currently was never removed. Ms. Drye also stated that the space under the plaza deck was never waterproofed, and the drainage systems for the pavers, the decking, and the planter beds were all inaccessible due to where they were located under the decking. Ms. Drye added that the planter beds were clogged, so heavy rain caused leakage into the garage, on top of the damage created by overgrown tree roots.
- iv. Ms. Drye informed The Library Board that GHP had created a drainage plan to try and alleviate the issue and gain access to the pipes that were unreachable.
- v. Ms. Drye stated that the Robinson Family agreed that the trees would have to come out of the courtyard, except for one Japanese Maple that they asked to have preserved. There were 41 trees planted in the courtyard in total, 40 of which would have to be disposed of. Ms. Drye stated that they hoped to make the courtyard as grand and special as it was before with better architecture and more sustainable "tree" structures. The Robinson Family gave their blessing to remove the trees, and Ms. Margaret Anne Robinson's son-in-law sent suggestions for potential structures that could replace the trees.
- vi. Ms. Carpenter asked if there was a contract with GHP and the length of the contract. Ms. Drye confirmed there was a contract in place for design services and GHP was a Metro vendor, so procurement guidelines were being met. Ms. Drye stated that she was not aware of the length of the contract. Ms. Carpenter reiterated the need for intentionality regarding inclusion of diverse contractors.

VII. New Business

- a. The Special Collections Book Donation Form Resolution 2024 02 item was moved up in the agenda due to time constraints.
- b. Special Collections Book Donation Form; Resolution 2024 02, Kyle Barber
 - i. Mr. Kyle Barber asked The Library Board to turn to page 53 of the library packet. Mr. Barber shared that the resolution was to re-examine the Special Collections Book Donations form. Mr. Barber stated that currently the form required any book donated to the Special Collections division must first be donated to The Library Board and have The Library Board's approval of the acceptance of the donation on behalf of the Special Collections division.
 - ii. Mr. Barber explained that the Special Collections division proposed removing The Library Board from that decision because the Special Collections team had a strong understanding of the scope of items they collect for their division, and had more awareness of their space restrictions, if any. Mr. Barber added that this change would hopefully create less work for The Library Board as well.
 - iii. Mr. Rand made a motion to approve the resolution to remove the Library Board from the responsibility of reviewing and approving donations for the Special Collections division. Ms. Carpenter seconded. Ms. Searcy called for discussion.
 - iv. Mr. Simmons asked for more examples of when collections had come before The Library Board in the past. Mr. Barber stated that there have not been any instances in recent years where collections required submission before The Library Board.
 - v. Mr. Simmons added that there may need to be some involvement from the Library Board depending on what kind of collections were donated. Ms. Searcy asked how often donations were submitted to Special Collections. Mr. Barber stated he was not sure how many donations were typically received, but he added that not every collection was "special" or significant like those made to the Votes for Women Room. Ms. Ezell asked what made a collection "special." Mr. Barber answered that Special Collections consisted of books and materials that dealt with Nashville and Middle TN history, as well as the Civil Rights and Votes for Women Rooms, which documented information on those movements specifically in Nashville.
 - vi. Ms. Ezell asked why the resolution was being presented now if it was not a frequent occurrence. Mr. Barber stated that Mr. Chinedu Amaefula, the manager of Special Collections, was doing his due diligence when reviewing old policies that had not been updated in several years. Mr. Barber continued that this form was brought to Mr. Barber's attention by Mr. Amaefula, and Mr. Barber brought this information to The Library Board on behalf of Mr. Amaefula and the Special Collections staff.

- vii. Ms. Searcy recommended that there be more research on the issue. Ms. Carpenter added that more information on the frequency of donations and the criteria required by Special Collections be clarified with The Library Board as well. Ms. De La Rosa asked to have more information on the current process for donations, as well as examples of previous donations.
- viii. Mr. Rand withdrew the motion. Mr. Barber agreed to re-introduce the resolution with more clarification on the asks at a future meeting.

VIII. Sustainability Committee Video, Lee Boulie

- i. The Sustainability Committee Video item (under Staff Reports) was moved up in the agenda.
- ii. Ms. Boulie presented the trailer for the NPL Sustainability Documentary, which was created and produced by library staff in partnership with Urban Green Lab.
- iii. Ms. Boulie acknowledged Ms. Kate Wingate, Ms. Sam Burns, Mr. Eric Lowy, and Mr. Cameron McCasland for their work on the documentary, as well as NECAT Board Members Mr. Jerome Moore and Mr. Willie Sims Jr. for their participation in the documentary. Ms. Boulie also acknowledged and thanked the following Sustainability Committee members for their contributions to the documentary and the library as a whole: Ms. Lily Carolyn Burke, Mr. Chris Verhaagen, Ms. Emily Krieble, Ms. Bailey Battilla, Ms. Tina Reid, Mr. Bassam Habib, Mr. A.J. Price, Ms. Wingate, Ms. Sade Johnson, Mr. Ben Hagans, Ms. Megan Sheridan, Ms. Selva Ibrahim, Ms. Maria West, Ms. Emily Talbot, Ms. Cheryl Hadley, and Ms. Nikki Glassley.
 - i. Ms. Boulie invited The Library Board to the VIP viewing, which would premiere later this summer in collaboration with Urban Green Lab.

IX. Interim Library Director Report, Terri Luke

a. Ms. Luke stated that she met with Kristin Wilson on May 17th to discuss the 4% allocation budgets for NPL materials and maintenance. Ms. Luke stated NPL was awarded $1.5 million for maintenance in the first allocation, and Metro Council agreed to award an additional $1 million, also towards maintenance in the second allocation. Ms. Luke stated that there would also be $2 million allocated towards collections in the second allocation.

X. Foundation Report, Shawn Bakker

a. Ms. Shawn Bakker updated The Library Board on Begin Bright and distributed an overview booklet to The Library Board. Ms. Bakker explained that the fundraising goal was a total of $20 million, with $7 million for the first 4 years, and $13 million for endowing the program. Ms. Bakker stated that fundraising efforts had already begun, and $7 million had already been secured from several generous donors. Ms. Bakker asked The Library Board

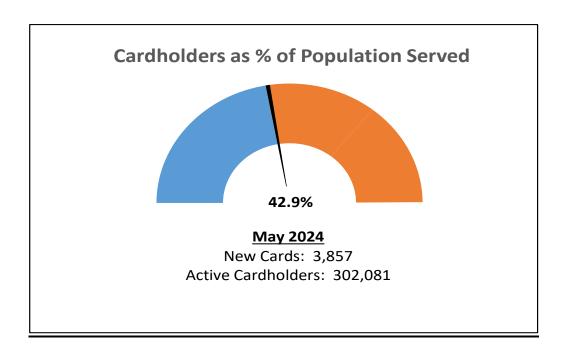

- to feel free to share information with any community members or organizations that would be interested in helping NPLF reach their goal for this initiative.
- b. Ms. Bakker stated that the NPLF Picnic at the Library yielded over $116,000 in proceeds and over 650 people were in attendance. Ms. Bakker stated that this was the largest picnic turnout.
- c. Ms. Bakker asked The Library Board to Save the Date on November 8th and 9th for NPLF Literary Award Weekend. Ms. Bakker shared that author James McBride was chosen as the spotlight author for 2024.
- d. Ms. Bakker informed The Library Board that The James Stephen Turner Family Foundation pledged a $750,000 gift to endow the NPLF Literary Award Gala sponsor in Ms. Judy Turner's and Ms. Laura Anne Turner's names. Ms. Bakker stated that this gift would allow NPLF to cover the annual $35,000 sponsor gift level in perpetuity. Ms. Bakker clarified that NPLF would still need to fundraise for the Gala as a whole, but this endowment would be used up to 5% each year to cover sponsorship costs.

XI. Adjournment

a. The meeting was adjourned at 1:25 PM.

Brief Area Updates – June 18, 2024

Nashville Public Library

ADMINISTRATIVE SERVICES

Safety & Security: May 2024

May was a busy month for Security with after hour events:

- 3 afterhours weddings requiring 3 Security officers.
- 2 afterhours Parnassus events requiring 2 security officers.
- 1 afterhours fundraiser at the New Donelson branch requiring 1 security officer.
- 1 Security employee transferred from security to branch custodial staff for better work hours. This leaves Security with 4 currant vacancies.
- Several court cases involving patrons who were arrested in April. All were found guilty as charged. One was bound over the grand jury. He faces up to 3 years in prison for aggerated assault from an incident at Richland Park.

45 Applications were received for our latest Security Officer job posting with 8 being mandatory. This is to fill 4 opens positions. Hopefully will be able to fill most.

Mark Crowder has started scheduling Annual Safety and Security training to branch locations that have not received the training recently.

Mark Crowder has discussed with the library managers at Main about creating an emergency response team at Main with each division manager assisting in their areas when evacuation and other emergency situations arise. We are waiting until several open mangers positions at Main are filled before we continue. Currently there are only 3 division managers at Main.

Total number of incident reports for the month of May (53) and related categories per incident report down from 58 incident reports in April:

Below is the number of incident Reports per Branch and then breakdown of each Branch:

NOTE: Each report could have one or more conduct violations, a safety or security concern, and an injury or accident associated with the report which could or could not result in a suspension.

BRANCH SERVICES

Branches have been growing gardening programs in many unique ways, bringing community members together to learn, grow, and contribute to a healthy environment. Master gardening groups, local businesses, and government agencies have all played important roles.

Students, teachers, and parents from Goodlettsville Elementary School plant raised beds in Goodlettsville Branch Garrett Gardens

Earth Day planting at Edmondson Pike

Pollinator garden preparations at Hermitage Branch

Branches celebrated National Library Week Celebration with outreach events, refreshments, book sales, and participation in the Take Action for Libraries Day Thank-A-Thon. On National Library Outreach Day there were 42 total outreach events with 1,488 participants.

Hadley Park Branch hosted Rhythm and Rhyme: A Jazz and Poetry Fusion event with spoken-word artist Cameron Mitchell and local saxophonist The Black Sax.

Edmondson Pike manager, Pat Bashir, did a presentation for Parents as Partners or Padres Comprometidos program from Conexión Americas. The parents seemed amazed with all the resources that the library has to offer.

Bellevue teens have expressed gratitude to have their space back and are really enjoying the new Teen Room layout with more seating and space. It has brought a whole new energy (and volume) to the space. ("Finally! It was so boring not going to the library!")

Bordeaux's Cooking Matters is a partnership program with Families Eating Smart and Moving More, a National Nutrition Education program with Tennessee State University College of Agriculture Cooperative Extension.

The Once Upon a Time annual performance took place at the Looby Theater on April 24th. Once Upon a Time is a program collaboration between Looby Library, Looby Community Center, and the Metro Parks Theater Division. Children create stories and pictures at the library, and Metro Parks Theater Division works with actors to create a live performance based on the kids' stories.

Donelson Branch Library is closed during the month of June while collections are being transferred from the old branch to the new location. We hope to see you all at the grand opening of the new Donelson Branch on Monday, June 24 at 9:30 am.

COLLECTIONS & TECHNOLOGY

Shared Systems

- James Staub, Jenny Lane, Bryan Jones worked with NPL IT (Jirik), TLC (our ILS vendor), OCI (the Oracle server host used by TLC) and AT&T to upgrade our network tunnel through which most library systems traffic runs.
- Jenny Ellis and Jenny Lane created a post for the Metro Council highlighting their library collection (with a focus on creating a sustainable city). This post can be viewed here: https://library.nashville.org/blog/2024/05/council-office-resource-library
- James Staub and Kate Wingate are working with MNPS to potentially cancel library bills for students who are unhoused. This would amount to close to $60K in fees, most for MNPS material.
- Kate Wingate attended three orientation meetings for MNPS Promising Scholars (summer school) where she taught librarians how to use the system, get reporting, and help students during this program (which runs the month of June).
- Kate Wingate and Jenny Lane will finish the process of cataloging Robertson Gifted Academy materials in early June. Bryan Jones has developed a catalog for the school/program which is different from regular MNPS catalogs.
- Jenny Lane and James Staub continue to work at onboarding the new market services vendor, FISERV. James attempting to get credentials to start working on the API integration, Jenny reaching out to users to determine device requirements. Keith Stokes ready to set up another meeting between the library and FISERV shortly.
- Jenny Ellis launched the new Wordpress NECAT Network website on Pantheon. She will present it to the NECAT members at their meeting in June. The new site can be seen here: https://necatnetwork.org/
- Jenny Ellis set up Beanstack for Summer Reading 2024.
- Jenny Ellis worked with Angela Brady and the staff at SE to get their new passport appointment booking set up and built a webpage to promote the service.
- Jenny Lane is working with the circulation committee to clarify what kind of accounts should be given to folks who are unhoused, in temporary shelters, staying in hotels or campgrounds, etc.
- Jenny Lane is working with Larry Jirik to beta test an online self-check designed for children's use in the children's areas at MA and GH.
- Bryan Jones upgraded Aspen to 24.05.00

Collections/ Materials Management

- Noel was a presenter on Library Journal's May 21st webinar: Demystifying Data to Deliver Community-Driven Collections. It had over 700 viewers and was well-received.
- Noel negotiated a new PressReader contract, resulting in savings of over $21,000.
- Noel, Beth and Joanna visited Old Hickory branch library to meet with the branch manager and discuss collection needs and view the library.
- Beth posted two collection spotlights: Pulitzer Prize for Fiction; Celebrating Asian American Authors.
- Ben posted two collection spotlights: Classics on Kanopy, Summer Comedies and did a written interview with a library school student.
- Joanna scheduled a 2025 TitleTalk for Children's Services and shared criteria for adding book donations to the library's collection with Children's and Teen staff.
- Joanna fulfilled staff requests for children's materials: DVD's and biographies for NO, Board Book refresh for BL, canine fiction and nonfiction for PR, Minecraft fiction and nonfiction for IN, Buddhism nonfiction for MN, AAPI biographies for MA and several title suggestions.
- Melissa Closed Subscriptions FY24 fund and created fund codes and ordered the first batches Central Asia books from Ingram and B&T.
- Collection Development Librarians responded to a total of 631 material requests in PIKA and LibAnswers from staff and library customers.
- Amanda posted two blogs: Asian Pacific American authors; Summer Loving Summer Reading.
- Susan recorded the following six episodes of the Family Folktales podcast: The Ratcatcher; How a Fish Swam in the Air and a Hare in the Water; Uraschimataro and the Turtle; The Magic Swan; The Story of the King Who Would See Paradise; and In the Land of Souls.

EDUCATION & LITERACY

Adult Literacy at NPL – Jamil Sameen

The 2024 Adult Education Spring Summit took place on May 15th at the Main Library Conference Center. Attendees learned about Consequential Impact from key speaker Dr. Deb MacFarlan Enright. The Spring Summit included the Adult Educator of the Year award Ceremony. Out of 6 candidates, Wendy Salyers from the Branch of Nashville was awarded the Adult Educator of Year. Dr. Laura Briggs was the runner-up. This process of selecting the Adult Educator of the Year was performed by 5 judges in a double blinded process. The Adult Literacy team is excited to host the next fall symposium in mid-October. Special thanks to event manager, Kelley Ferguson, and to program specialist Cassandra Taylor for all their work in creating a meaningful event. Next year, the summit will be held earlier in the spring to avoid conflicts with graduations and year-end festivities.

Adult Literacy @ NPL expanded its collaboration with USCIS, who presented at the Spring Summit and the entire Adult Education community was excited to have a speaker from USCIS. The Community outreach from USCIS highly encouraged agencies to apply for the grant opportunity at USCIS to serve more individuals eligible for citizenship (estimated 90,000 people are eligible to apply for citizenship in 7 southeast states).

The Adult Literacy team collaborated with American Job Center and hosted a career fair at the Main Library. 10 employers interviewed candidates on the spot and job seekers were hired on site.

The Adult Literacy team received a testimonial from Belmont University staff collaborating with the BRANCH of Nashville:

"Jamil Sameen has been an incredible partner to Belmont University and The Branch of Nashville. Jamil has served as an invaluable resource attending conversation partner events and helping students connect to NPL resources. Many of the events offered are outside of traditional business hours and Jamil is always present. He has a passion for service and a deep commitment to adult education."

15 of the Adult Literacy partner staff completed Career Ninja training in May. The training helps staff to better support their clients with career developments and job placement. Another weeklong session will be held in late June for 5 additional staff from agencies.

The Adult Literacy team continues to provide educational sessions at the Room in the Inn and the Project Return; both are seeing increased attendance, averaging 10 learners per class.

The mobile lab served 24 learners, with 14 new NPL cards issued to students. Nashville Helps had 65 requests for services.

Bringing Books to Life! – Liz Atack

BBTL led 80 programs with 1,137 in attendance. 36 programs were coaching sessions and workshops with Spanish-speaking families as a part of COACH, BBTL's research partnership with VUMC, which is nearing its final year. The cohort at the Madison branch was especially successful and staff at Madison reported an increase in Spanish-speaking patrons. VUMC's study staff reported families talking about visiting the branch more often.

May was a busy month of supporting the community. Staff appeared on Nashville Noticias with MNPS staff to discuss kindergarten readiness and NPL services. BBTL staff also participated in the MNPS Pre-K Community Advisory Committee. Staff also met with the Early Embrace team at the Raphah Institute to discuss supporting home-based childcare providers in South Nashville. BBTL continues to be active in Raising Readers Nashville.

May is always a busy time with workshops for parents and teachers, especially parents. BBTL held 11 workshops at area childcare centers and elementary schools for families. Staff received some excellent feedback on teacher surveys:

"BBTL is an indispensable resource for my lesson planning!! I love the monthly book selections with printable lesson plans. I can't say enough great things about the BBTL Programs!!!"

"The presenters have given me many practical ideas that I have implemented-books at other locations like the science & block centers; set up a "tell me a story," & tinkering station."

"I like that we discussed actual books in front of us and the usefulness of them"

BBTL staff were also invited to share their talents broadly: Klem-Marí Cajigas was invited to serve on the selection committee for the National Ambassador for Young People's Literature for the Library of Congress. Liz Atack was invited to speak on a panel at the Publishing Innovation Forum, to offer a perspective on how BBTL utilizes books.

Be Well – Bassam Habib

Over 500 people attended Be Well programs across all 21 branches this month, with 99% of participants reporting that they are "satisfied" or "very satisfied" with the programs.

Be Well mental health programming is in a great place, with Art Therapy, Meditation, Sound Baths, and the Your Mind Matters podcast launching in May.

Be Well finished the Edmondson Pike Branch Community Garden this month. It has brought new traffic to the branch and is offering a safe space for the community. The next community garden will be built at the new Donelson branch. This month Bassam Habib has been communicating with the Raphah Institute to host their programs at NPL branches. They focus on transformative and restorative justice and healing for incarcerated youth. Bassam Habib and Travis Claybrooks, the Director of Raphah, spoke about having a partnership held twice this month.

In partnership with the Alzheimer's Association, NPL will now begin offering Memory Kits across 5 branches.

Bassam Habib is working with Adult Literacy and the Web Services team to create a database on Be Well's landing page that includes lists of community resources, organizations, and non-profits.

Digital Inclusion – Marian Christmon

Digital Inclusion launched Senior Tech Academy at the Madison branch library in May. There are two groups divided into a morning and an afternoon class twice a week. This will be the last Senior Tech Academy offered this year; however, the branch classes have been well attended so there are plans to continue scheduling at branches next year.

The second cohort completed the "Microsoft Office Skills for Work" with Digital Inclusion partner Workforce Essentials.

Graduation @ Workforce Essentials

Digital Inclusion continued Senior Planet Classes, offering lectures and workshops in May that covered Online Health and Wellness topics as well as benefits of joining the Senior Planet Community.

Marian Christmon met with Jeff Rose and Darryl Greer of OATS to discuss expanding Digital Equity for seniors in TN and applying for one of the Federal DE grants to finance the work. They were asked to help find possible partners in TN that might be interested in this work so a message was sent to all the organizations that were a part of the Senior Trust programs as well as libraries across the state.

Limitless Libraries – Syreeta Butler

COLLECTION DEVELOPMENT

Sarah Allen and Emily Farmer continued to work on the bookmobile collection. They also finished up an order for materials for the Outreach team to use in their 2024-2025 school visits, and the Circulation team has been diligently unboxing and storing those books as they arrive on B1. Emily Farmer and Sarah Allen also began their Summer Order research and completed draft carts, and they'll begin running year end reports in the coming week.

PROCUREMENT UPDATES

Syreeta Butler attended the Pre-offer meeting facilitated by Harrison Bond regarding the Library Cards RFP.

Syreeta Butler reviewed the Metro Council approved Sole Source Contract for Rosen Publishing, manufacturer of the Teen Health and Wellness, Power Knowledge Science, Report Builder, and Level Up databases.

Syreeta Butler reviewed the Round 1 submissions for the Educational Materials RFP and shared the team's feedback regarding expectations and demonstration requirements for Round 2.

COMMITTEE/ GROUP PARTICIPATION/ PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Syreeta Butler attended the Procedure Review Committee meeting.

Syreeta Butler facilitated the Limitless Libraries staff meeting and shared notes from the NPL Managers meeting regarding the Continuous Improvement Plan, training initiatives, travel, and budget.

 Staff debriefed about the Middle School Battle of the Books yearly event and discuss improvements. Staff were challenged to think about how to celebrate Limitless Libraries' 15-years of service.

PROGRAM EVENTS

Limitless Libraries hosted the annual Middle School Battle of the Books event with 26 schools participating, approximately 130 students, 60 captains & parents, 30 volunteers, and the wonderful support of Main Library branch.

- Meigs Middle School team was the champion this year. Their prizes included a trophy, $200 gift card, books, a limo ride back to school, a yard sign, and bragging rights for being the top team of the day!
- A special and heartfelt "thank you" goes out to Dollar General Literacy Foundation who affords Limitless Libraries the opportunity to facilitate this amazing event.

OUTREACH

Syreeta Butler met with Aventura Community School principal and Rocketship United Academy Director of Operations to discuss bookmobile visits, their expectations and goals for the bookmobile, and the need for the bookmobile collection to reflect the demographics and culture of the students.

Syreeta Butler conversed with other charter school leaders to gauge their interest in the bookmobile and setup meetings for next school year to discuss bookmobile visits, benefits, and collection.

Tyler Sainato and Helene Mahnken conducted 12 school visits, interacted with 36 school librarians, and dedicated 67 total hours to school engagements. During these visits, they assisted with several weeding projects, lesson planning, joint program brainstorming, corrected cataloging issues, read to 6 classes, represented Limitless Libraries at 2 school events, and presented information about the NPL Summer Challenge to 4 classes.

Tyler Sainato and Helene Mahnken also attended the NPL Children's and YA staff meetings, met with the Old Hickory branch staff to discuss joint outreach to area schools, and met with Lindsey Kimery from MNPS Library Services to discuss the Limitless Libraries role during Promising Scholars.

Tyler Sainato and Helene Mahnken shared valuable information on Limitless Libraries' social media platforms, promoting NPL's digital services for student summer use, as well as NPL's summer programming. They also ran the Limitless Libraries social media during the Battle of the Books event.

CIRCULATION STATS

Limitless Libraries facilitated the circulation of 1,210 items, utilizing 1,446 green bags, 60 gray bins, with 38 book trucks returned from MNPS and 18 book trucks sent to MNPS. Limitless Libraries' circulation for this school year wound down on May 8.

NAZA – Anna Harutyunyan

NAZA held 6 Professional Development workshops in the month of May on the following topics:

Understanding Community Growth Practices: Equity, Access, and Justice

Vision Implementation Onboarding & Training

Connecting Community & Individual Growth Practices: Identity & Self-Awareness

Connecting Community & Individual Growth Practices: Curiosity, Learning, and Growth Mindset

Connecting Community & Individual Growth Practices: Love, Self-Worth, and Confidence

Connecting Community & Individual Growth Practices: Emotional Intelligence & Self-Management

These workshops accounted for a total of 6 hours of training with 30 in attendance.

Enrollment saw 371 of 600 (62%) funded spots filled for June 2024 programs. This figure does not include paper applications collected by programs that haven't yet been entered in the database or online applications that are awaiting review by the individual organizations.

The youth of NAZA's Youth In Action! youth leadership initiative celebrated the close of another successful year at the Youth Matters Gala & Showcase on May 30th. Twelve youth and 21 adults (excluding staff) were in attendance. The event was held at Southeast Community Center and featured a recognition ceremony, hands-on activities, presentations of the youths' community service projects, and food from local restaurants.

As of the end of May, 21 programs have been selected for funding, pending approval from the Metro Council.

Puppet Truck – William Kirkpatrick

The month of May saw many performances, specifically one at the Richland Park Farmer's Market which was a new site. Other Farmer's Markets in the area have been reaching out to William Kirkpatrick about booking more performances for the summer. The new Puppet Truck QR Code has made spreading the word about Wishing Chair and Puppet Truck a lot easier.

Puppet Truck was able to perform a show integrating reading and puppets, and staff eagerly stepped up to the occasion.

Puppet Truck is officially prepared for the Summer Reading events at the branch libraries.

Wishing Chair Productions – Bret Wilson

Wishing Chair Productions conducted 12 in-person Storytimes, 17 mainstage presentations of Momotaro the Peachboy in the children's theater for a total of 29 performances with an audience count of 2,118 participants. Wishing Chair Productions welcomed several groups to private performance in the children's theater during the month of April: Harpeth Valley Elementary, Tennessee School for the Deaf, Akiva School, The Episcopal School of Nashville, and Friends Life Community.

All Wishing Chair Productions staff have completed filming individual segments for the next installment of WCP-TV scheduled to air June 24th, 2024.

Wishing Chair Productions offered 17 performances of Momotaro the Peachboy during the month of May. This production that was created in partnership with the Consul Generals Office of Japan was offered in English and Japanese with English subtitles. This created a reading opportunity for audience members.

One of the young attendees named Wesley mentioned following the performance:

"This was by far my favorite puppet show, even better than Ali Baba. It seems that every time I come here the shows get better and more complicated."

Work has begun this month on loading in the next mainstage performance for June and July: Library Pete and the Storytime Band presents "The Rock 'N Roll Extravaganza."

Members of Wishing Chair Productions were asked to provide creative insight into the creation of Little Library's for educational sites throughout the city. Linda Harrison provided a rough rendering of what she thought the item should look like and work began on a prototype in two sizes. Both (smaller named Little Brother and larger named Big Sister) prototypes are made of foam and represent any number of possibilities for the Begin Bright program.

In addition, the company was asked to consider creating a show from the Imagination Library book catalog list. Over 80 books were examined and a list of first and secondary options were presented.

Studio NPL – Niq Tognoni

Programming in the branches wrapped mid-May for both Studio NPL and Southern Word mentors with the exception of East branch, where Studio added additional days to help during their short-staffed days. A few branches will continue getting periodic Studio NPL mentor visits over the summer, but most of the mentor staff will focus on staffing summer intensives.

Performances and Open Mics:

Studio NPL started May out with the final presentation of the young adult musician-in-residence cohort in partnership with Southern Word and Intersection. This performance brought 4 college-aged musicians together with classical musicians from Belmont and the symphony to showcase collaborative music pieces created at Studio NPL during the Spring in front of a diverse, all-ages audience. To celebrate the end of the school year, staff worked with Southern Word to host 3 school-day open mic performances from area elementary, middle, and high schools. These events brought many new patrons to the Studio NPL space, and the Studio team expects to see some of them continue with after-school programs.

Outreach:

In May, Studio NPL served 300 patrons across 19 hours of outreach, including a tabling event at a community organization event in East Nashville, an "international night" in Antioch, and a day at Goodlettsville Middle School, hosting hands-on STEAM activities. The staff favorite event was an evening at Issac Litton middle school, where staff worked with students and their parents on a collaborative "Robot Race" competition and showcase of the semester's work.

Studio Stories:

A few nice stories to share: One of Studio's regular production patrons stepped in this month to help run recording sessions for a new patron in the absence of the Studio NPL production mentor. Throughout the month, he volunteered multiple times to do tutorials for other patrons and has committed to volunteering with Studio for some shifts over the summer to host more sessions for other teens. This patron moved to Nashville over the winter and has really made a home at Studio NPL.

Adam, one of the Studio NPL mentors, noticed a patron had come in multiple times with broken glasses, held together by tape. He worked with the teen to measure and design replacement arms for the frame, and took him through the process of 3D printing, testing, iterating, and finally completing replacements to help fasten onto his frames. While not a permanent fix, these sessions showed the value of 3D printing and introduced this patron to a new section of the space he was not comfortable working in.

Another patron came in with some jeans he wanted to cut-off into shorts for the summer. Instead of simply supplying scissors— as was the request— Rae, Studio's newest mentor, worked with him to properly measure, pin, and use the sewing machines to finish the shorts to look factorynew!

Grants:

We were grateful to receive a commitment from Memorial Foundation this month to support Studio NPL at our East-side sites, and NPLF submitted grant requests to Comcast and Jackson, all of whom have supported us in the past.

MAIN

Adult Services

- The Black Caucus of the American Library Association announced winners of the 2024 Self-Publishing EBook Awards. This year, the award for the best self-published EBook in fiction by an African American author, is our very own Lavelle Miller for his debut novel. Your Turn.
- Jeremy Estes distributed 250 copies of his zine, Panel Discussion. Jamal Park in Adult Services is launching a digitization project to make the zine available to patrons through our website.
- Nina NeSmith completed her series called, "Music and Message." Nina partnered with Bassam Habib of Be Well @ NPL and Ashley Shelley, LPC-MHSP of Melanin and Mindfulness, LLC to invite patrons to listen to music by Kendrick Lamar and discuss the themes of his album, Mr. Morale and the Big Steppers. Participants expressed that the program was prolific and inspiring and Nina was excited that her vision for the program was executed exactly how she had imagined.
- 4,847 reference questions answered.
- 15 notary appointments.
- 90 programs, with 1,227 in attendance.
- 52,483 visitors at the Main Library.
- 533 Instagram followers
- 5 proctored exams

Children's

- The Chinese American Alliance of Nashville visited the library for a special presentation of the Mouse Bride to celebrate the start of Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Month. The Children's Department patrons loved having a unique event to mark to the start of the month and staff loved partnering with CAAN!
- The positive impact of our diverse Storytimes at the Library is undeniable, reflected in the constant inquiries from our patrons about when all the programs will start again. These events not only provide fun moments for both parents and children but also represent opportunities to learn and grow together. The palpable anticipation of their return highlights the importance these programs have in the life of our library family. Cristina has received praise that our Storytimes inspire imagination and foster a love for reading in children.
- Danielle had a lovely interaction with a couple checking out books for their kids. While Mom was looking for her library card, Dad was browsing the picture book display and remarked on one with a bilingual title because he recognized the language. Danielle told them it was about grief and losing a parent and they were so amazed at the variety of topics the books in our collection address, even mentioning how it had been difficult to find Muslim representation when they were younger and now it's so much easier for their kids. It was uplifting to see the real-world impact diverse books have!

• The Summer Reading Workgroup and Children's Department came together in the final weeks of Summer Reading Challenge prep to pull everything together.

Equal Access

- The Equal Access team threw a wonderful retirement party for outgoing Equal Access Manager, Sandy Cohen, who built this program and worked for the Nashville Public Library for 45 years. The party was a celebration of Sandy's work and her impact on the deaf and hard-of-hearing communities in Middle TN.
- The Talking Library team has been discussing ways to celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the Talking Library in 2025. Initial ideas include sharing archived programs, creating a public service announcement about the Talking Library and a documentary with the help of Cameron McCasland from NECAT
- The team sent out four new receivers to patrons this month, bringing the total of registered Talking Library listeners to 425.
- Library Services for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (LSDHH) completed a series of outreach events at Hillsboro High School to talk to students about self-advocacy and phishing scams.
- Brenda and Daniel helped provide an interpreted marionette show (Momotaro, the Peachboy) to deaf students.

Special Collections

- Elliott Robinson presented a collection of oral histories to the Nashville History Club at Fort Negley.
- Eva Wurst received wonderful feedback on two recent programs that she coordinated.
 The University of Indiana, South Bend brought students down for a tour of the Civil Rights Room. Eva also worked with a group of students from Curry Ingram. Both groups praised Eva for the information she covered and more importantly, her cadence and delivery.
- Courtney Buggs and Rebecca Price tabled at Hattie Cottom Elementary School for their dedication ceremony after the bombing of the school in 1957.
- 14 programs, with 350 attendees.
- 27 Nashville Banner negatives scanned; 14 digitized for preservation and 13 digitized by patron request.
- 18 Nashville Banner negatives were received, processed, and digitally added to CONTENTdm through Chicago Albumen Works.
- 518 Instagram followers

Teens

- Lauren Gilpin, Teen Center Manager, worked with Kipp Hadli of Adult Services to organize Free Comic Book Day. The event was held at Main and three branch locations. They distributed 112 free comics to patrons.
- Santiago and Andrew planned an "End of School Celebration" for teens this month. They had four stations; bingo, ring toss, lottery and pizza. Teens enjoyed the event.
- 21 programs with 247 attendees.
- 3 outreach events with 35 attendees.
- 3 group visits with 42 attendees.
- 1,576 teens coming to the area this month.

MARKETING & COMMUNICATIONS

MarCom spent most of May in the sprint toward the 6/24 opening of the new Donelson Branch Library, as well as preparing for the marketing launch for Summer Reading Challenge 2024.

We also secured placement in Urbaanite Nashville for a feature on Don Holmes; Mr. Holmes is the outgoing Chair of the Nashville Public Library Foundation and has a beautiful story about his maternal heroes that elevates the Votes for Women room.

Nashville Public Library Board June 18, 2024

Resolution Title: Pay Increase for Interim Library Director, Terri Luke

History/Background/Discussion: The Library Director, per Metro Civil Service Rules is entitled to any incremental increase that is across the board to all Metro employees and approved by Metro Council and funding is provided by Metro. However, any pay increase above that which is received by all employees must be approved by the Library Board.

Before the Metro Council is a proposal for a 3.5% across the board (COLA – cost of living allocation) increase for all Metro employees effective July 1, 2024. Due to Terri Luke being the interim library director and appointed to the position by the Library Board her salary is set by the Library Board, per Metro Civil Services Rules she is not a civil service employee and not entitled to any additional pay increase unless authorized by the Library Board. Additionally, Metro does not allocate any additional funding for any pay increase the Library Director may receive from the Library Board above that which is allocated in the COLA increases.

Recommendation: The Library Director receives up to an additional 7.4 % pay increase, if funding is available, effective July 1, 2024.

Draftor(s): Susan Drye, Associate Director for Administrative Services

Person(s) Responsible for Implementation: Susan Drye

RESOLUTION 2024 – 03

Up to a 7.4% additional Pay Increase for Interim Library Director Terri Luke

WHEREAS, the library board wishes to compensate the Interim Library Director additional compensation in addition to the COLA increase all Metro employees shall receive and any additional increase will be effective July 1, 2024 if funding is available, and

WHEREAS, any pay increase above those increases allotted to all Metro Employees by the Metro Council must be approved by the Library Board;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED by the Nashville Public Library Board of Trustees that an additional pay increase of up to 7.4% for Interim Library Director Terri Luke is approved effective July 1, 2024, if funding for the increase is available.
